HONEYWELL NOMINATES ROBIN WASHINGTON, CFO GILEAD SCIENCES, FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MORRIS TOWNSHIP, N.J. – March 1, 2013 – Honeywell (NYSE: HON) announced today that Robin Washington, 50, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Gilead Sciences, Inc., has been nominated for election to its Board of Directors at the April 22, 2013 annual meeting of shareowners. If elected, she will serve on the Audit and Retirement Plans Committees.

“Robin’s strong business and financial acumen make her a terrific addition to our board,” said Honeywell Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Dave Cote. “She has extensive experience in corporate governance, investor relations, and information technology at large multinational companies, and has a deep background in financial auditing and accounting. We look forward to her contributions to Honeywell’s board as we continue to drive world-class standards in financial controls and corporate governance.”

Washington joined Gilead as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in May 2008. In this role, she spearheads Gilead’s global finance, investor relations, and information technology organizations.

Prior to her time at Gilead, Washington served as Chief Financial Officer of Hyperion Solutions, an enterprise software company that was acquired by Oracle Corporation in March 2007. Washington also spent nearly ten years at PeopleSoft, a provider of enterprise application software, where she became Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller. Prior to this role, Washington assumed other senior roles including Director, Finance, International Operations as well as Director, Finance, Europe, Middle East, and Africa.
